Female Philosophers 1 - Hipparchia of Maroneia

| What did she think? | What I think of them: |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
| Key Quotes          |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |

Female Philosophers 2 - Hildegard of Bingen

| What did she think? | What I think of them: |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
| Key Quotes          | Eng.                  |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |

Female Philosophers 3 - Tersea of Avila

| What did she think? | What I think of them: |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
| Key Quotes          |                       |
|                     |                       |

Female Philosophers 4 - Voltarine de Clayre

| What did she think? | What I think of them: |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
| Key Quotes          |                       |
|                     |                       |

Female Philosophers 5 - Simone de Beauvoir

| What did she think? | What I think of them: |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
|                     |                       |
| Key Quotes          |                       |
|                     |                       |

Female Philosophers 6 - The Oxford Quartet

| What did they think? | What I think of them: |
|----------------------|-----------------------|
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
|                      |                       |
| Key Quotes           |                       |
|                      |                       |